

Snow Plows Busy Opening Streets. Worked All Night

Nearly a Foot of Snow Fell Friday and Early This Morning—Snow Plows Started Out at Midnight and Continued at Work Today Opening Streets.

At midnight Friday Superintendent Frank Mills of the board of public works ordered out the city snow plows to clear the streets and the plows worked all night. The men were somewhat handicapped as all but two of the plows had mislaid. The two plows worked all night, opening the main streets and the business sections first and also the roads leading to the two hospitals and the city cemeteries.

As a result of the snowstorm which broke over the city about 8 o'clock Friday morning, and continued falling until an early hour this morning, 11 inches of snow had fallen.

The trolley road had its plows out and trolley service was not interrupted by the storm.

The work of opening the streets with the city plows continued today and it was expected that by night all of the streets, or practically all of them, would have been opened.

In the business sections Superintendent Mills placed the street department rigs at work removing snow.

Friday a number of minor accidents, due to skidding were reported to the police but no one was injured. A collision between the cars of William Welas of Bloomville and John Ward at Abel and Wurts streets was reported. Another collision between the cars of Samuel Watts and Thomas Clancy at Broadway and Chester street, was reported. An auto skidded at the Roundout Creek Bridge and crashed into the patrol house, smashing the glass in the window. Raymond Cardone of 75 Foxhall avenue, reported a collision on Crown street with one of the city buses.

Albert Mones of 20 Chambers street, to avoid an accident, ran up on the sidewalk and snapped off a fire hydrant on Franklin street, near Clinton avenue.

CONDUCTOR HAS CLUE TO MISSING MISS SMITH OF SMITH

Woodville, N. H., March 10 (P).—The belief of J. H. Wilkinson, Canadian Pacific Railroad conductor of a Boston-Montreal express, that a girl who boarded his train here on the night of January 14 was the missing Miss Frances St. John Smith, together with his declaration that he knew the girl's present address, aroused much interest in the case here today.

Wilkinson told newspapermen here that his attention was first directed to the similarity by recent photographs of the girl in connection with the arrest of a Northampton, Mass., man for sending ransom demands to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. St. John Smith of New York city.

He had not read much concerning the case previously he declared. The girl boarded his train on the night following the disappearance of Miss Smith from Smith College at Northampton. She arrived at this junction point in a Gardner, Mass., taxicab, he declared, and paid a cash fare on the train from what seemed to be a large roll. She was well dressed and had in addition to hand luggage, a violin case, he declared.

Previous accounts of Miss Smith's disappearance failed to mention that she had taken any luggage from her room or that she was interested in the violin.

FATHER AND TWO OF HIS SONS DIED IN FLAMES

Philadelphia, March 10 (P).—A father and two of his three young sons lost their lives early today in a fire which destroyed their home.

The dead are: Lorenzo Cambria, 46, who was estranged from his wife, Emma, eleven, and Angelo Cambria, six. The third son, Harry, fourteen, escaped death by crawling to a shed roof adjoining his bedroom, where he was found overcome from smoke and carried to the street.

Attracted by the reflection of the fire, neighbors saw Cambria at the fire window holding his youngest son in his arms and crying for assistance. The flames shut off any chance of rescue until the arrival of firemen, who found all three lying on the floor, dead from burns and suffocation.

BAPTISTS COMMEMORATE MURDERER MANTERDON

Vienna, Austria, March 10 (P).—On the spot where Balhassar Habermayer, one of the early Baptists of the Christian Church, was burned alive for his religious beliefs four hundred years ago, Baptists from the United States and Europe today commemorated his martyrdom.

Led by Dr. James H. Franklin, foreign secretary of the American Baptist Foreign Mission Society of New York, they placed wreaths and flowers in the graveyard quarter of Vienna. They during the reign of Emperor Ferdinand, Habermayer "gave his life that religion might live."

Could Reported Improved.

Nice, March 10 (P).—Howard Gould, American financier, ill at a hospital, was stated to be much improved today. Gould recently underwent an operation, but the nature of his illness was not disclosed.

Heavy Snowfall Throughout the Eastern Section

Foot Reported at Gloversville and Ten Inches in Pennsylvania—Heaviest Fall of the Winter Came as Soon as Unemployed in New York City.

New York, March 10 (P).—A snow storm sweeping out of the middle west sent a Boston to New York steamer, with 150 passengers aboard on the rocks off Cape Cod and blanketed large sections of the east with one of the heaviest falls of the winter.

The steamer Robert E. Lee went hard aground on the Mary Ann Rocks, Manomet Point, Cape Cod Bay, three hours after leaving Boston for New York last night. She was fast on the rocks but in little danger of breaking up. Coast guard and life saving craft stood by. A high running sea barred rescue by the life saving corps at Manomet Point which attempted to launch surf boats to go to the ship's assistance.

Snowfall ranging from fractional amounts to one foot occurred in various parts of the east. Temperatures were moderate over most of the region.

Old residents were wondering if the famed blizzard of '33 was to be repeated. On March 11 and 12, that year, the east was blanketed with the worst snow storm on record, 20.9 inches being reported in New York city, where traffic was disrupted for days, and the city cut off from outside communication. The first communication with Boston was established via London Cables. Property loss at that time was estimated at $25,000,000.

The heaviest snowfall today was in the Pennsylvania mountains which unofficial estimates placed at 10 inches, and at Gloversville, N. Y., where there was a foot.

Many Highways Blocked.

Trains were running from a few minutes to hours behind schedule and many highways were blocked. Several bus lines in New York, Pennsylvania and New England were forced to discontinue service throughout the night, when the roads became impassable from the high drifts.

The Great Lakes were whipped into huge waves, in some sections the water going over embankments onto highways and into the cellars of lakeside homes.

Dispatches from Toronto said the storm there was the most costly of the winter, trains running behind schedule, many autos abandoned in huge drifts along the highways, and vehicular traffic in the country practically at a standstill. A wind of 40 miles an hour and a snowfall of six inches were recorded.

Heaviest in New York City.

In New York city, a four inch snowfall, the heaviest of the winter, came as a boon to the unemployed. From six thousand to eight thousand workers were added to the street cleaning force of 8,000. On Manhattan Island the high temperature turned the snow into water and slush, but in outlying sections drifts were piled high.

At Ashland, Pa., extra workers were needed to keep the rail lines from the coal mines to the breakers clear. At Pottsville the snow caused suspension of work in some of the mines.

The storm brought liberty to several denizens of the zoo at Saint Louis. Marie when the drifts piled so high they were enabled to walk over the tops of the fences. Several bears and wolves escaped in that way.

Forecasts over most of the east today promised clearing skies and continued cold over the week end, although warmer temperatures and probably rain were also expected in some sections.

Called from Window for Aid

Aged Woman Too Weak to Open Window Broke Pane of Glass and Called for Assistance Stating She Was Cold, Sick and Hungry—In Hospital.

This morning as a pedestrian was passing through North Front street he heard the feeble voice of an aged woman calling for aid. Glancing up he saw a broken pane of glass in the window on the second floor of 115 North Front street through which the aged woman had thrust her head. She said she was cold, sick and hungry.

Police headquarters was immediately notified by the pedestrian and Officer Entrott was sent to the place. He investigated and found that the aged woman had only one thin blanket on her bed, no fire in the room, or food and that she was crippled with rheumatism. He reported what he had found to Sergeant Simpson who got in touch with Superintendent Edmondson of the City Home who requested that the woman be removed to the City of Kingston Hospital.

The woman gave her name as Mrs. Mary Muller, and said she was willing to go to the hospital. She was removed there in the city ambulance in charge of Officers Simon Wood and Keating.

Will Confer on Knapp Charges

New York, March 10 (P).—George Z. Medalie, appointed by Attorney General Albert Ottinger to take up charges against Mrs. Florence E. S. Knapp, former secretary of state, planned a conference with Ottinger here today.

On Monday, Medalie said, he would go to Albany to confer with Deputy Attorney General Albert J. Danaher, whom Ottinger has designated as Medalie's aide.

Medalie explained that he did not wish to discuss the case until after his conference with the attorney general.

Alien Property Bill Signed

Washington, March 10 (P).—President Coolidge today signed the alien property bill, providing for settlement of American claims against Germany and for the return of seized property.

It had been disclosed previously that President Coolidge did not regard the bill as satisfactory as the one recommended by the treasury. He did not like the proposal that salaries of the drafting clerk of the Senate and House and some treasury officials be raised.

The bill authorizes a final appropriation of $100,000,000. German and Austro-Hungarian claims of $100,000,000 or under will be settled in full and claims of greater value will be settled immediately to the extent of 80 per cent.

Dies of Bullet Wound

New York, March 10 (P).—William J. Schmidt, a young attorney recently admitted to the bar who was found with a bullet wound in his head in a washroom on the 21st floor of the Woolworth Building today, died shortly after being taken to a hospital. He was 25 years old. Police believed it was a case of suicide.

200 Killed in Landslide

Rio Janeiro, Brazil, March 10 (P).—Newspaper reports from Santos say that more than 200 persons are estimated to have been killed today in a landslide on Montserrat which buried many houses and streets.

Coolidge Favors Asheville, N. C.

For His 1928 Vacation Home, Although Final Decision Has Not Been Reached—Has Factors Which Will Figure in Selection.

Washington, Mar. 10 (P).—Of various invitations received for this year's summer White House, President Coolidge finds one from the south, at Asheville, N. C., the most attractive.

Although a final decision has not been reached, a residence offered no later than Thursday by Philip S. Henry of Asheville, appears to the President to unite the essential features for his 1928 vacation home. Zealandia, as the home is known, occupies 100 acres on Beaucatcher mountain at an altitude of about 3,000 feet, or about 500 feet higher than the city proper.

The place also is close to Washington, relatively close to New England, and at a sufficient height to assure relief from the summer heat, three factors which will figure in the ultimate selection.

Asheville is fourteen hours from Washington by railroad, and as such is looked upon by the chief executive as within a convenient distance from his likely centers of operation this summer, one of these probably will be Northampton, Mass., whence Mr. Coolidge does not wish to depart too far from on account of the condition of Mrs. Lemira Goodhue, Mrs. Coolidge's mother, who has been dangerously ill since last December.

Washington, on account of the peculiar political situation this year, is the other center to which Mr. Coolidge intends to remain relatively close.

Sunshine Follows Storm in Toronto

Toronto, Ont., March 10 (P).—Ontario was cutting its way today through the huge drifts which blocked its highways while bright sunshine succeeded the raging snowstorm of the past 24 hours.

Western Ontario and the north country bore the brunt of one of the heaviest snowfalls of the winter. Train service was interrupted and bus travel in some cases suspended.

The meteorological bureau here today believed that the storm was over in this portion of Canada.

FURTHER ADJOURNMENT IN "DRY" HEARING

An adjourned hearing in the matter of the selling of alcoholic beverages in violation of the Volstead law against Joseph Zoch of Chatham, Columbia county, came before U. S. Commissioner Arthur C. Connelly in this city, Thursday afternoon. By request of the prohibition enforcement department in New York the hearing was further adjourned until Thursday, March 22, at 2 p. m. Augustus Shufeldt is attorney for the defendant.

Manager Wigsten Of County Farm Bureau Resigns

Will Be Connected With Central Hudson Gas and Electric Company in Field Work—To Continue With Farm Bureau Until Successor Is Familiar With Duties.

F. Murray Wigsten, manager of the Ulster County Farm Bureau, has resigned his position to engage in other work. His resignation, presented at a recent meeting of the Farm Bureau directors, was accepted but no definite date for severing his connection has been announced as Mr. Wigsten has assured the Farm Bureau directors that he will continue with his present duties until his successor is on the job and familiar with the work.

Mr. Wigsten, who came to Ulster county some time ago as Farm Bureau manager, by his spirit of co-operation and his loyalty to his work has become one of the best liked and most popular managers of the Farm Bureau has had since its organization. The increased membership and activities in the county have proved the value of his work. His resignation at this time of year, before the spring activities are under way, will make it comparatively easy for his successor to become accustomed to the duties in the county before the summer rush begins.

Although no definite date has been set the Board of Directors is now engaged in endeavoring to secure a successor. Mr. Wigsten, on severing his connection with the Farm Bureau, will become connected with the Central Hudson Gas and Electric Company in field work.

When Mr. Wigsten's successor is selected by the board of directors of the Farm Bureau, he has the assurance that Mr. Wigsten will co-operate in every way to introduce the new manager to his duties in the county. By reason of the diversified farming interests in the county the job of Farm Bureau manager in Ulster county is a very important job and one which puts to a severe test the ability of the manager. During his management Mr. Wigsten has displayed unusual ability to work with all of the various interests of the county which includes not only milk production, general farming and fruit growing but poultry as well.

BAGGAGE TRUCK WAS HIT BY FREIGHT TRAIN

Saugerties, N. Y., March 9, 1928. Kingston Daily Freeman, Kingston, N. Y. Gentlemen:

This is to inform you that the baggage truck was hit by a south bound freight train Monday, March 5, 1928, at West Camp Station. When we were there to meet the 11:42 a. m. train. Your issue of March 8, 1928, states that the baggage truck was not hit. This freight before it stopped hit the baggage truck and wedged it between the locomotive and baggage car the first locomotive which was a double header had to be uncoupled and run down the track before we could obtain body from the train. Both myself and assistant were out of the way when the south bound freight came in on the passenger train which was parked at the West Camp R. R. Station. Mr. Young, the station agent, was not on the platform, he was north of the station to load a truck load of mushrooms for express shipment which had to go into the express car and was blocked by the second locomotive. This was also uncoupled to let Mr. Young load the mushrooms. Hoping that this will correct your item, I remain, Yours very truly,

GEO. H. SMITH,
Care Seamon Bros. Co.

WEATHER OUTLOOK FOR NEXT WEEK

North and Middle Atlantic States: Rain or snow Sunday night, probably clearing Monday, then generally fair except for light precipitation along the northern border until about Friday when rather general rains are likely. Temperature will be above normal almost the entire week, except near the northern border the middle of the week. Highest temperature about Tuesday and Friday and lowest Thursday, cooler about Saturday.

CHIEF WOOD ORDERS LOTTERY LAW OBEYED

Complaints having been made that local theatres were awarding valuable prizes by chance, constituting a lottery, and openly advertising this fact, Chief of Police J. Allan Wood on Friday took action, investigating the various gift enterprises being conducted by the theatres and notified the managers that the law must be complied with and the practices complained of stop.

League Committee Considers

Geneva, March 10 (P).—The forty-ninth session of the council of the League of Nations closed this afternoon. The last subject before it was the St. Gothard machine gun incident which caused a complaint against Hungary by the Little Entente. A committee of three appointed to consider this case, told the council it would be unable to report before the June meeting.

Dry Agents Raid Place in Sawkill

Frank Griffith is Arrested Charged With Possession of 385 Gallons of Alcohol—Further Adjudgment in Putard Case.

The second raid this week conducted by Federal agents working out of the local office at 240 Fair street, took place Friday afternoon when they visited the hamlet of Sawkill where they searched the premises of Frank Griffith. Armed with a search warrant for the premises, they discovered in an outbuilding on the farm a quantity of alleged alcohol in five gallon containers. The stuff was seized and Mr. Griffith placed under arrest on a charge of possession. He gave bail for appearance at 10 o'clock this morning before U. S. Commissioner A. C. Connelly.

When arraigned before Mr. Connelly at his offices on Wall street, Griffith was charged by the agents with the possession of 385 gallons of alcohol. Demanding an examination an adjournment was taken until March 27 at 2 o'clock and defendant was released on $10,000 bail. Thomas F. Coughlin appeared for Mr. Griffith.

A further adjournment was taken in the case of William Pintard and Philip and Schuyler C. Dero, the two latter employees at the Pintard Lake View Inn at the time of the raid earlier in the week. All three cases were adjourned until March 28 at 10 o'clock. John M. Cashin appeared for the three defendants. The raid at the Pintard place was conducted by agents working out of the local office recently established. They allege the finding of beer, ale, wine and apple brandy.

The California On Round Trip

Electrically Propelled Ship Sailed Today for San Francisco—William G. Gardner, Who Installed Equipment, Sailed With Ship.

The electrically propelled liner, The California, of the Panama-Pacific Line, sailed this morning from New York city bound for San Francisco by way of the Panama Canal. This is the second trip of the liner since the electrical equipment which drives the ship was installed. On board the ship is William G. Gardner of the General Electric Company, who had charge of the installing of the electrical equipment of the vessel.

Mr. Gardner has been spending several days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Gardner at Ulster Park, but was called back to New York in order to leave on the California when she sailed today. Mr. Gardner who had charge of the installation of the electrical equipment which propels the liner is on board the vessel as guarantee engineer, representing the General Electric Company and will probably remain with the ship until she is accepted by the Panama-Pacific Line.

Banks Held For Grand Jury

Jesse Banks of Marbletown was held to await the action of the grand jury on a charge of assault in the first degree at a hearing before Judge Oscar Church at High Falls Friday afternoon. It is alleged Banks aimed a loaded double-barreled gun at a man because he had kicked over a dog, said to belong to Banks, and knocked another one down with a stone after they tried to bite him. Roscoe Elsworth, of Brimfield, Canfield & Elsworth, represented Banks at the hearing, and Francis C. Merritt the district attorney.

Local Banks to Pay 4 1/2 Per Cent

The savings banks and the national banks of Kingston having an interest in advertisements found in The Freeman this evening call attention to the fact that the interest rate on deposits has been increased to 4 1/2 per cent, effective the first of this year.

ARTHUR BEESMER MUST PAY WIFE $10 WEEKLY

Arthur Beesmer of 235 East Union street, was placed under arrest by his wife Friday evening and turned over to the police on a charge of disorderly conduct. This morning in police court Beesmer was sentenced to thirty days in jail, which was suspended pending good behavior, and he was directed by Judge Shufeldt to contribute $10 weekly toward the support of his wife and family.

Ambulance Calls Here

Thursday the city ambulance removed Anna Gerard from 20 Murray street to the City of Kingston Hospital. On Friday the ambulance removed Mrs. Laura Seism from 18 Gage street to the City of Kingston Hospital; Mrs. John Baker from 155 Smith avenue to the Benedictine Hospital; and Cyrenus Brille from the City Home to the Benedictine Hospital.

Passengers on Stranded Liner Reported Landed

Two Members of Coast Guard Believed Drowned When Surf Boat Capsizes While Returning to Shore From Robert E. Lee—Rough Sea Makes Transfer of Passengers a Dangerous Undertaking—Seven Others Rescued.

Boston, Mar. 10 (P).—The eastern steamship company reported that all of the 150 passengers on the stranded liner Robert E. Lee had been safely removed and landed on the state pier in Plymouth shortly after noon today. The passengers were to be taken back to Boston in motor busses and dropped off at the most convenient places for them to continue their journey to New York.

Two Believed Drowned.

Plymouth, Mass., March 10 (P).—Two members of the Manomet coast guard station were believed to have been drowned today when a surf boat capsized in the heavy sea while returning to shore from the stranded Robert E. Lee. Seven others who clung to the overturned boat were rescued.

A power boat which cruised the vicinity about where the surf boat overturned failed to sight the missing men.

The seven rescued were in the water a half hour. They had been able to gain a hold on the overturned boat and clung to it as the high running surf washed it slowly ashore about a mile from the coast guard station. When the boat came to within a hundred yards of shore, three small dories put out and took the men aboard. They were landed with great difficulty.

The surf boat was in command of Boatswain's Mate W. H. Ashwan. The others were F. W. Griswold, E. E. Stark, W. F. Wood, R. L. Wood, J. E. Ducharme, E. F. Sampson and A. A. Crotter.

No attempt was made to identify the men before they were taken to a hastily assembled relief station in a hotel.

Snake Charmer Expert Spanker

Goes to Jail Rather Than Pay $100 Fine for Spanking Her 16-Year-Old Daughter for Refusing to Explain Automobile Trip.

Kansas City, Kan., March 10 (P).—Placing her diamonds in custody of her husband, Mrs. Christine Woodside, 34, former snake charmer and lion tamer in a carnival, has elected to spend 100 days in the workhouse rather than pay a $100 fine imposed for spanking her 16-year-old daughter.

Informed by Judge Fred R. White, that he believed the spanking had been "unwarranted severe," and that she must pay $100 and costs or go to jail, Mrs. Woodside handed three diamonds rings to her husband, C. R. Woodside, and with a smile left for a cell. She forbade Mr. Woodside, stepfather of the girl, Lorene Jones, to pay the fine.

Arraigned in Judge White's court here last night following her arrest on complaint charging assault, which was sworn to by Lorene, the mother admitted whipping the girl Sunday last with a coat hanger. She said Lorene refused to give an account of a trip she made in the family automobile.

Mrs. Woodside's arrest followed unsuccessful efforts of welfare officials to effect a reconciliation after Lorene left her home to stay with her Sunday school teacher, and the mother threatened to discipline the girl further should she return.

"Parents have a right to punish their children; but they have no right to be brutal," Judge White said in imposing sentence.

"I'll not crawl, judge," replied Mrs. Woodside. "I'll go to jail first. That will be as hard on Lorene as it will on me."

Before the hearing opened, Mrs. Woodside asked Lorene if she wanted her to serve a sentence or pay a fine if she was convicted.

"I just want protection from your cruelty," the girl answered. Then she broke into tears and sobbed throughout the trial.

Great Tribute To Wanamaker

Persons High in Public Esteem Mourn Death of "Merchant Prince"—Funeral Services Will Be Held Monday.

Philadelphia, March 10 (P).—The body of Rodman Wanamaker lies at "home" today near the city of his birth awaiting burial on Monday, while his associates and other persons high in public esteem mourned the passing of the last surviving son of America's "merchant prince," the late John Wanamaker.

Death yesterday at Atlantic City removed one of the country's foremost citizens. Rodman Wanamaker died at 65, an age at which he had attained international fame as merchant, philanthropist, patron of the arts and aviation, as well as one of the wealthiest men in the United States.

Messages of condolence were received from all parts of the country. Among the senders were President Coolidge, Chief Justice Taft, members of the cabinet, Governor Smith of New York, Cardinal Dougherty and Mayor Walker of New York.

Flags on all municipal buildings in Philadelphia were lowered at half staff as a tribute to his memory, and the Wanamaker stores in Philadelphia, New York, Paris, London and Tokio were closed.

The funeral services will be held Monday afternoon in St. Mark's Protestant Episcopal Church, and interment will be in the family vault here.

ONE PRAYS, OTHER SNORES WHILE AWAITING VERDICT

Los Angeles, March 10 (P).—William Edward Hickman and Weibey Hunt awaited with varying attitudes the verdict of the jury which heard their trial for the murder of C. Ivy Toms, suburban druggist, in a 1926 Christmas Eve holdup.

Hunt, who is 17 years old, prayed fervently. Hickman, who took his death sentence for the kidnapping and murder of 12 year old Martin Parker with a "wise crack," snored loudly in his cell while the jury which received the case late yesterday, was deliberating.

The jurors were locked up for the night without having reached a verdict.

Cutters Standing By

The coast guard cutters Tuscarora and Redwing were early arrivals on the scene and soon after midnight the naval salvage ship Falcon, the submarine tender Bushnell and the minesweeper Mallard were dispatched.

Financial and Commercial

New York, March 10 (P)—The annual advance in General Motors, Radio and other speculative issues, which has been under way for about a week, was finally checked in the last hour of trading today by the enormous volume of profit taking sales. The reaction followed an amazing outburst of strength at the opening which carried more than a score issues, including most of the pool favorites, to new high ground.
The day's sales set a new Saturday record of around 2,000,000 shares.
General Motors, after attaining a new record high at 161, fell back to 156, or nearly 4 points below last night's close. Radio dropped from 117 to 114, where it was still up 6 1/2 points on the day; du Pont from 358 to 350 and Hudson from 94 1/2 to 90 1/2. International Harvester sold down 4 points below last night's close and U. S. Steel common, Consolidated Gas, American Can, U. S.
Industrial Alcohol, General Railway Signal and several others yielded a point or more.

A few stocks continued to show independent strength in the face of the general selling. Baldwin Locomotive ran up 7 points to 275. National Tea 3 1/2 points to 139 1/2.
Continental Can 2 1/2 points to 94, and American Telephone 1 to 181 1/2, all new peak prices for the year or longer.

The closing was heavy.

MONTHLY MEETING OF NEW ERA LEAGUE

The regular monthly meeting of the New Era League, First Presbyterian Church, was held in the Sunday school room, Thursday evening.
Mrs. Graham, the president, presided.
After the usual business there was a discussion as to whether it was advisable to continue the envelope system or not.

It was the opinion of the members that the envelope system had been a decided success, as shown by a balance of over $500 in the treasury after all obligations had been met, and therefore it was voted to continue the same system.

It was also stated that at the next regular meeting in April, the yearly reports of all chairmen and officers would be given.

After the business meeting, Mrs.
William H. Niles read a paper on "The Southern Mountaineers," which described their mode of living, and how much the schools were helping these people to overcome their many difficulties of environment and old habits of living. The paper was very informing and enjoyed by all.
Then followed two little plays, which were both entertaining and instructive, depicting the home life of southern mountaineers, and showing how the children, and adults also, appreciate every opportunity given them to study and learn how to better themselves and their homes.

COAL STRIKE LEADERS ARRESTED

Inciting a riot were the charges filed against the two strike leaders, off shore. They had made a quick run from Provincetown, on the tip of Cape Cod, where they had been engaged in salvage work on the submarine S-4.

After their arrival the snow began to fall heavily, and it was possible only to glimpse lights of the stranded vessel in occasional lulls in the gale. The blast of whistles were heard continually through the gloom. Radio advices from the stranded ship had said that although there was six feet of water in the boiler room all passengers were comfortable and there was no confusion.

Lee Was Off Its Course.

First messages from the Lee indicated that she had lost her course in treading the lower reaches of Massachusetts Bay on her way by the inside route to the Cape Cod Canal and New York.

The point where she grounded is considerably shoreward of the usual course and is in the midst of a number of other ledges.

The accident was the second of the season for the Lee. On the night of December 12 it collided with the tug Nemesis in Buzzard's Bay, sinking the craft with the loss of two members of the tug's crew.

INTELLIGENT DOG GUIDES LOST WOMEN SAFELY HOME

Holy Cross, Alaska, Mar. 10 (P)— Lost on the windswept wastes of a 50 mile portage between the Kuskokwim and Yukon rivers, southwest of here, two women were guided to safety by the lead dog of their team of huskies.

Word of the safety of Mrs. Earl Forrest and Miss B. Lenke, the object of searching parties organized Thursday, was brought here from Pimute Lake by an Indian. The women, he said, were suffering from cold and exposure as a result of several nights spent on the shelter-less tundra of the portage.

The pair left Bethel February 27 on a hazardous drive of more than 100 miles to Holy Cross. Soon after crossing the Kuskokwim river, they lost the trail on the unmarked portage, after wandering helplessly over the uninhabited and treacherous wastes, they ceased trying to drive their team of nine dogs, and left their fate to the leader of the huskies.

Not knowing where they were being taken, for several days and nights the women faced strong northerly winds and low temperatures until the dogs led them into the little settlement at Pimute Lake.

Final Bell for Former Champ

Detroit, March 10 (P)—The final bell has sounded for George Lavigne, the "Saginaw Kid," former world lightweight boxing champion.

Lavigne, who ruled the lightweight ranks from 1892 to 1899, died at his home here last night after a brief illness. Death was due to heart disease.

The "Kid," who was 38 years old, was reputed to have earned a small fortune in the ring, but of that there was nothing left. For the past few years he had been employed as a night watchman at a Ford Motor Company plant.

Ascending the lightweight throne
on the retirement of Jack McAuliffe, Lavigne defended his title against such boxers as Joe Walcott, the "Barbadoes Demon," Andy Bowen, Young Griffo, Charley McKee, Eddie Connelly, Dick Burge, the English champion; Mysterious Billy Smith, Jack Everhardt and Jack Daly.

Lavigne lost the title at Buffalo in July, 1899, to Frank Erne, who outpointed him in 20 rounds.

Similarity in Trees

The forest service says that the eucalyptus tree and the giant redwood tree are very similar in all respects.
Generally speaking, the giant redwood is taller than the eucalyptus.

KINGSTON, N. Y., MARCH 10, 1928.

To Senator Hefflin is attributed the objection that if Governor Smith were elected President the cellblock of the Catholic clergy would be "practiced openly" all over the country.
 But can even Mr. Hefflin be as ignorant as that would imply?

A Camden, N. J., man, who was himself a long-term prisoner, runs a wood-carving factory which is operated almost exclusively by ex-convicts. He knows from experience how difficult it is for a former "fall bird" to re-establish himself as a useful citizen and has the laudable ambition to help his fellows.

The Lord Chief Justice of England has been looking into the case of Bardell vs. Pickwick and has reached the interesting conclusion that the knowledge of the law and its practice in his time displayed, by Charles Dickens was extraordinarily minute and accurate. It seems that in his report of that imaginary trial the great novelist did not make a single mistake.

Snuff-takers are said to be increasing in this country, production in January having amounted to nearly four million pounds, or 16.9 per cent more than in January, 1927. Whether the increasing takers take it in the old-fashioned way through the nose, or in the rural American way from a toothbrush-like stick in the mouth, is not stated. It is rather interesting to know—it is true—that "tobacco chew-ers are switching to snuff."

WASTED PROFIT.

Mangus W. Alexander, president of the National Industrial Conference Board, is worried over the problem of "profitless prosperity." Great business activity has brought such keen competition that many concerns, he says, are selling manufactured goods "at cost or less." This is in spite of lowered costs of production. It is due to high costs of distribution.
 Production is more efficient than ever before; distribution remains inefficient.

"Sales resistance" doesn't explain.
 People won't resist buying goods, in any quantity, if they can get the goods at a price they can afford to pay. They could absorb far greater quantities of goods if prices were lowered further. Prices are still too high compared with the cost of production. It costs more to sell things usually than it costs to produce them.
 If as much intelligence and energy were applied to distribution as are applied to production, there would be plenty of profit for producers and consumers both.

VIEW OF EPISCOPALIANS.

The Church Temperance Society of the Episcopal Church has once more issued a pronouncement against prohibition not only as a failure but as undesirable in itself, and, as usual, other representatives of that denomination may be expected to object that the said Temperance Society is without authority to speak for the whole Episcopal church. The figures presented by the Society are interesting.
 They show that 1,304 Episcopal clergymen believe prohibition a failure and 501 regard it as a success; 1,289 Episcopal clergymen favor modification of the Volstead act and 873 are opposed; 352 of the Episcopal clergymen who answered the questionnaire favor repeal of the Eighteenth amendment and 984 who answered are against its repeal.

Naturally it is asked why should a majority, while regarding prohibition a failure and favoring modification, nevertheless balk at the repeal of the Eighteenth amendment? Doubtless the answer is to be found in a certain conservatism based on the persuasion that any amendment added to the Constitution is as "sacred" as the original document itself and thus more authoritative than the will of the people expressed at any future time in a majority vote. Obviously this more or less paradoxical reservation weakens the effect of the Episcopal Church Temperance Society's pronouncement.

IS THRIFT WRONG?

There are economists who maintain that it was thrift which caused the recent glutting of American industry. The argument is that by putting money into savings accounts and industrial investments, people kept financing new industries and increasing production while dismissing their own purchases. Thus production ran ahead of demand. They should have kept on spending and absorbing all the goods produced.

 It is a clever argument, but a specious one. No doubt industry would have been kept running longer at full speed if people had made a practice of spending all their earnings, increasing their purchases as production increased. But that is always a perilous proceeding. If the economic machine keeps speeding up, finally it runs away with itself, and there is a big smash. That is the way to bring on business panics and periods of calamitous depression.
 Stinginess is almost as bad. But thrift in reasonable degree, which is what we have had these last few years, is a stabilizing force. It provides funds needed for new enterprises, funds to preserve sound credit, funds to carry on with in times of temporary dullness or unemployment.

No boom is worth while when followed by a panic. We have learned that lesson by bitter experience. It is better to avoid both extremes and follow the sane, middle course of moderate but assured prosperity.

THAT BODY OF YOURS

James W. Barton, M.D.

MORE USES OF THE SKIN.

Perhaps you give the skin little thought except that you believe it should be kept clean.

Perhaps you think of it as a sort of bag holding the muscles and other parts of your body together. And yet it is as delicately organized as any organ in the body.

In addition to being a covering or protection to the body, and also throwing out some of the wastes, we know now that the skin plays a most important part in controlling the temperature of the body through its "ability to conduct heat and evaporate water."

It certainly does its job well of protecting the underlying structures, as it cannot be dissolved by the ordinary chemical agents.

And yet it allows the penetration of the ultra violet rays of the sun, which as you know enrich the blood and stimulate the circulation.

We had begun to think that with our knowledge of the sweat which the little oil glands which keep the skin soft and pliable, that we knew all that was to be known about the skin.

And now they believe that the skin has the power of storing water within it. When deprived of water, and with loss of blood by hemorrhage or bleeding, it was found that the skin had considerable water stored up within it, and in proportion to its extent and thickness gave up to the blood as high a percentage as any other tissue.

Further, when a normal salt solution was injected into the body, the skin took up a very large proportion of the salt water injected, and thirty minutes afterwards it held 14 per cent of the total amount of water injected.

Further, the skin has the power to hold a large amount of sugar within itself, because thirty minutes after a sugar solution was injected, the skin contained almost as much sugar as the blood.

It is believed that the skin does not simply store this water and sugar, but that both the sugar and water are given up by the skin to the blood as they are needed by the system.

Therefore to our conception of the skin as a bag or covering, and as a heat regulator, must be added these new uses of the skin in the body, that is storage of water and sugar.

The lesson then is that the skin should be kept active not only by bathing but by exercise of the muscles beneath it, which thus bring the blood to the surface in increased amounts.

Skin activity, by exercising the muscles, would give the liver less work to do in storing sugar and removing wastes from the blood.
 Keep the skin active.

 proclaimed the victor after a series of five games.

DAILY LESSONS IN ENGLISH.

By W. L. Gordon.

Words Often Misused: Do not say
 "I like no man better than he." Say
 "than him."

Often Mispronounced: humanity.
 Pronounce the h; and not u-manity.
 Often Misspelled: unkempt; note the p.

Synonyms: doubtful, improbable, unlikely, problematical, contingent.
 Word Study: "Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Today's word: TYRANNICAL: despotic, cruel. "She was unhappy, due to his tyrannical disposition."

RECALLS HARRY LEGG'S

WIRELESS EXPERIMENTS.

To the Editor of The Kingston Daily Freeman.

Dear Sir:
 It might be of interest to the writer of the historical wireless sketch that was in the Saturday, March 3, copy of the Daily Freeman, to learn of the following:

To begin with the article does not give Harry B. Legg all the credit that was due him. The writer of this piece was personally acquainted with Mr. Legg and very frequently visited him in his office in the city hall. He was a very deep thinker and a true experimenter. On some occasions I have known him to stay at his office until late in the morning working on some theory or idea that he had run on to.

When the first paid men were stationed at the old Welner Hose house on Hasbrouck avenue, Mr.
 Legg designed and built an automatic switch to turn the electric lights on when the fire alarm sounded, also a device to drop the chain that kept the horses in their stalls.

In the summer of 1907 Mr. Legg began a series of wireless experiments and in the following fall carried on regular wireless communication with Marshall Miller at his home on Wynnkoop Place. This they did daily trying to improve the the-very faint dots and dashes on their crude wireless sets. It was at this time that the present superintendent of the city's fire alarm system, Marshall Miller, began his electrical career. Thomas Coons, who lived on the other side of Mr. Miller's and who is now employed at the high school, will verify the following:

It was some time after midnight one night when Mr. Coons was awakened by someone at his door, only to find that Mr. Miller was getting Mr. Legg's messages very loud and clear and wanted him to hear it also.

The first far away wireless received by Mr. Legg was one night in May of 1910, when he picked up the Marconi Experimental Station located at Sayville, Long Island. I believe a man named Kilas, an operator from the Ulster & Delaware Railroad was present and took the messages down for him. It was not long after that he received the baseball scores every day over his homemade set. How it would have pleased Mr. Legg if he could have visited the WBZ radio station that was located in his old fire alarm office, where he carried out many of his experiments in the early days. It might be well to note that Kingston was one of the first cities in the United States to have a wireless working, which was in the winter of 1907-8. Policeman Arthur Dempsey and Policeman Elbert Soper will remember these experiments because they were both members of the fire department at the time and knew Harry Legg very well.

Respectfully yours,
 AN OLD TIMER.

California Uses
Most Gasoline

With New York's Untaxed $92,800,000
 600 Million Consumption Second—Only Two States do Not Tax Gasoline, Even New Jersey Having Fallen Into Line.

Washington, D. C., March 10.— Consumption of gasoline by motor vehicles increased 12.4 per cent during 1927, the American Road Builders' Association estimated today.

The number of gallons of gasoline consumed in the United States totaled 11,563,499,000, according to figures released by the Association.

California led all states in the consumption of the fuel, the vehicles of that state burning 1,017,681,000 gallons. The state of New York ranked second with $92,800,000 gallons.

The average national consumption per motor vehicle was approximately 550 gallons. The total number of miles travelled estimated on a basis of 13.5 miles per gallon was placed at more than 150,000,000,000 miles.

All but two states were imposing a tax on gasoline at the close of 1927, the association stated, Illinois and New Jersey having inaugurated a tax during the year. New York and Massachusetts are the only states without the tax. Accurate figures on the amount of gasoline tax were not available, but are expected to run well over $200,000,000 as compared with $187,603,231 in 1926.

The increased consumption of fuel was attributed to the greater popularity of long distance travel, and to the stimulation of vehicle transportation by a larger mileage of good roads. "The good roads," the association explained, "have increased the number of miles per gallon of gasoline, but have given such a stimulus to travel that a larger consumption has taken place. Registration of motor vehicles increased approximately 5 per cent during 1927, the total estimated being 23,125,000 as compared with 22,001,400 in 1926.

These figures do not include busses.
 The gasoline consumption figures for the states of New York and Massachusetts were estimated. The Illinois and New Jersey figures were estimated on the basis of consumption for the months during which a tax was imposed and figures made available. In most of the states the figures were final and revised, while in Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Indiana, Iowa, Maryland, Mississippi, New Mexico, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Utah, Vermont, and West Virginia they are still subject to revision when the final gasoline tax reports are published.

The gasoline consumption in the various states as made public by the American Road Builders' Association for 1927 from figures furnished by the American Petroleum Institute and the various state departments was as follows:

 imous in their praise of this beautiful new car. Such enthusiastic acclaim proves how widespread has been the demand for a low-priced Six powered by the patented Willys-Knight engine.

It has long been our aim to produce just such a car. But due to the greater cost of building the superior sleeve-

Lady Bailey Off for Airplane Tour

Went to Fly Alone From London to Capetown, 6,000 Miles, Seeking to Visit Friends on the Way. Purely a Holiday Trip, She Says.

London, March 18 (AP).—Lady Bailey, who is the wife of a wealthy man and has won a trophy for the outstanding woman aviator in 1925, today was embarked on a flight to Capetown as her summer holiday.

"I am traveling light," she said, as she climbed into her own De Havilland moth plane at Croydon Airport. "I am taking only two suitcases, but I mean to make a comfortable trip. This is my summer holiday."

The trip, Lady Bailey continued, is purely for private amusement—she has no idea of trying to set records, or of attempting to enjoy herself in the sport she loves. Her destination is Capetown, 6,000 miles away.

After circling the airframe in a light snow flurry, she sped southward on the first series of short flights which she intends to make. Other stops include Rome, Algiers, Beirut and Cairo, and she will probably drop in on friends en route. She hoped finally to join her husband, Sir Abe Bailey, Transvaal, and to visit her mother, who is now in South Africa.

On the way she may meet Lady Heath, the former Mrs. Elliot-Lyons, a friendly rival in past aerial adventures. Lady Heath is making a similar flight from Pretoria to Bulawayo. She suffered a sunstroke but is understood she has resumed her journey.

The International League of Aviators on January 16 awarded, for the first time, an international trophy for women flyers. Lady Bailey was the recipient. She was named the "outstanding woman aviator in 1925."

Lady Bailey was born in 1890 and is the daughter of the fifth Lord Roseberry and sister of the present lord. She married him in 1911.

The Dutch Arms met on Tuesday evening. It was Boy Scout night and they gave a demonstration. Mr. Ward had charge of the meeting. There were several speakers, also music, and a bountiful supper.

Miss Cora DuBois entertained several guests at supper on Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gregory and Mr. and Mrs. Judson Schoonmaker visited to Passaic, N. J. Sunday. Here they stopped to see Miss Amy Arke, who has been in the Passaic General Hospital suffering from a fractured spine. They found her much improved.

Miss Sarah Kimball, a niece of Mr. William T. Edwards, is seriously ill with pneumonia in the hospital Sea Cliff, Long Island, where she is being treated.

Dr. Lawrence H. Van denBerg is away for a few days.

Magoozy
Bobby and Tom lived next door to each other. Bobby was outside riding his scooter when Tom came out.

"Did you see my ma go 'way?" he asked.

"No," answered Bobby, hesitatingly. "I was out and Bobby ran into the house."

"Mother," he called, "what's a 'magoozy'?"

"Oh, I can't," replied Aunt Lela. "I won't be the 'magoozy'."

Wink, after a few minutes' thought, reported indignantly: "Well, mother doesn't need any 'magoozy,' she's taking powder."—Children's Magazine for Parents.

Highland Quintet Beat Wappingers

The Highland quintet, coached by the champions of the county, defeated the Wappingers in a basketball game, 45-20, at Highland Thursday night. The winners carried their way to a 2-0 tally in the first half in which "Swat" Russell, former shortstop of the Kingston Colonials, who lives in Poughkeepsie, played the star role in the season of gathering 15 points. The win was marked by superior passwork on the part of the Highland team, which played a big factor in their win.

"Swat" Russell, who established himself as the outstanding point center of the Highland aggregation by getting the 15 in the opening session, was able to play but a few minutes of the second half and had to be substituted by McManus. Pete Bruck of this city, who recently signed up with Highland for the remainder of the season in place of Maury McDermott, was played close by Kane in the first session. He registered but one point in the half and during the second period was able to score five times from the free-throw line.

Maury McDermott, who played with the Kingston Colonials and in whose place Bruck is playing for Highland, jumped center for Wappingers against his former teammates. Although he collected 15 points in good playing style the Highland fans did not register the usual favor they formerly had for Maury.

The management of the Highland team is greatly pleased with the way in which the quintet played this season. It is planned to have a banquet for the team in the near future at McCabe's Restaurant, this city.

Pete Bruck will have no trouble finding a team to play with next season for the Highland fans with whom he has become popular will undoubtedly call for his services when the court season of '28-'29 opens.

ST. MARY'S WON SECOND GAME FROM ST. PETER'S.

St. Mary's Parochial School basketball team defeated St. Peter's Parochial School quintet, 17-13, at St. Mary's Hall, Friday afternoon.

The win was the second this season over St. Peter's for St. Mary's team.

The winners led 10-6 at the end of the first session but had to do some hard playing to lead their opponents by the four point margin at the end of the battle. P. Kelly of St. Mary's team did the main point collecting with seven in his credit. Derrenbacher collected the same amount for the St. Peter's team.

K. H. S. Varsity And Seconds Won

Coach Kins' Kingston High School Varsity defeated the Alumni quintet, a collection of newly organized players who played well individually but lacked team work, 47-26, at the school gym, Friday night. In a preliminary tilt the K. H. S. Seconds defeated the DeMolay, 46-25.

In the event booked as the feature of the evening Maroon scored heavily for the High School Varsity with 14 points. Johnson and Hyatt of the Alumni each tallied 12 markers. Molyneux started the school team's scoring with a field early in the first quarter, while Johnson collected the Alumni quintet's first lone marker. At the end of the quarter the Varsity was in the lead 5-3. Hyatt started what was thought to be a scoring rampage for the Alumni by caking several near shots from the center of the court in the second quarter, but the school team tightened and led at half time, 20-13.

Hyatt of the Alumni started the tallying in the second session, but after a field by Brown the Varsity team rolled up points until they led by a safe margin through the final half. The High School Seconds displayed the best playing form of the evening by defeating the DeMolay team before a small collection of spectators. This tilt which proved the more interesting of the two was waged by the Seconds in the first half when they outscored the DeMolay, 21-9. Smith of the losers did the best scoring of the game with 14 points to his credit. Jim Halloran led the school scorers with 13 markers. Brennan and Clarke trailed him with 12 each. The scores:

Business in the cotton goods markets is devoid of profit and is proving burdensome to some mills. Textile world says. Buyers still lag in many lines despite apparent stabilization of raw material. There is interest in gray goods for early delivery at low figures.

LAST NIGHT on the RADIO

Friday evening, after the various buzzers and snarlors had quieted down the fans enjoyed one of the finest static concerts heard in several months. Occasionally a buzzer or a blooper tried to butt in, but static held the field. There were occasional intervals during which the efforts of the broadcasters could be heard clearly for a few seconds and it was manifest that reception would have been very strong. New York stations were silent for some time for the Robert E. Lee SOS calls. The best stations were KDKA, WSAI, WLS and WTAM.

Because of illness Jeanne Gordon will be unable to sing in the Atrium Kent hour for Sunday night, March 11. Her place will be filled by Richard Crooks, young American tenor. This program goes on the air through WEAF and the Red network stations beginning at 9:15.

ONE MAN IN TWENTY KNOWS WIFE'S MAIDEN NAME

Albany, N. Y., March 10 (AP).—Only one man in twenty knows his wife's maiden name, according to Miss Mary R. Thomas, for 15 years executive secretary of Albany County Chapter, American Red Cross.

Miss Thomas said she made this discovery while working on applications of World War veterans for adjusted compensation.

"We found," she said, "that only about five per cent of the applicants knew the middle names or the maiden names of their wives. It was the same with the maiden names of their mothers, which had to be filled in on the application form."

"The percentage of those who knew the middle names of their children or the date of their children's birthdays was even smaller."

Miss Thomas recalled one applicant who knew his mother's maiden name, but after a moment's thought, remarked in all seriousness: "I don't know what my father's name was before he was married."

PLANT NEW YORK TREES IN LOS ANGELES

Albany, N. Y., March 10 (AP).—A group of hard maples, the official tree of New York state, will be sent to the California Botanic Garden at Los Angeles, to be planted in a section reserved for native trees of the various states, officials of the New York State Conservation Commission have announced.

The trees which will be selected for transplanting to the Pacific state will be about five or six years old, and will be chosen carefully as regards condition, in order that they may be more likely to take root in the alien soil.

The request for the trees was made by L. D. Merrill, superintendent of the botanic gardens. The trees will be carefully packed before shipment, and officials of the commission are confident that they will thrive in their new environment.

It is planned to have a former resident of New York state plant the trees in their new home.

The Smoothness and Snap That All America is Demanding
There's no longer any doubt about it. America is demanding more and more from its automobiles. More power... more style... more speed. And above all else... more smoothness and snap.
Smoothness that brings to driving new pleasures and new delights. Snap that responds to the traffic signal as a sprinter responds to the gun. Smoothness and snap that you know are the very essence of motoring satisfaction. Smoothness and snap that you find revealed in the All-American Six.
You find them there because of Oakland's big, impressive heritage of an engine which starts so easily 'way below zero. Because of its famous GMR cylinder head... force feed fuel pump... 79-lb. crankshaft... generously over-size connecting rods and other vital parts.
Because of its ruggedly constructed chassis... its bigger clutch and smoothly shifting gears... and the super-precision construction demanded in the All-American principle of design.
Once you've experienced its smoothness... once you've witnessed its snap... you'll know why the All-American Six is winning such tremendous success!
